Chris

I am sure your folks have found the cases saying an attorney can sign for a corporation or the government. Here's an example: Johns v. USA, 1997 WL 732423 (E.D.La. 1997).

Please let me know if you still have concerns about the form of the United States' answers. If that's the case, I'd like to talk to you again, because I believe we can resolve any issues about form.

Do you have some cases for me to consider regarding the verification of interrogatories? I have some folks researching it and wanted to make sure they consider your authority.

Thanks.

Chris
